EELS var lenge borte fra manesjen før de slapp sitt forrige album. Det kompenseres MARK OLIVER EVERETT for nå, ved å slippe End Times bare seks måneder etter Hombre Lobo. Dette albumet følger opp der forgjengeren slapp, men med enda bedre låtmateriale! Vi ser ikke bort fra at dette kan bli albumet som fører EELS tilbake i toppsjiktet blant musikk anmelderne – akkurat der de hører hjemme!

Albumet kommer også i en begrenset versjon, som kommer noe senere i lager, med fire ekstra spor på en bonus-CD. Først til mølla!

NORMA ble dannet i 2005 i Stockholm. Etter bare 6 måneder ble bandet oppløst pga interne konflikter, men det fungerte ikke, så de kom sammen igjen etter 6 nye måneder. Etter noen forsøksvise EP'er, spilte de endelig inn debutalbumet Book Of Norma, en liten juvel, inspirert av deiligheter som NEU!, SPACEMEN 3, MOTORPSYCHO og SOUNDTRACK OF OUR LIVES. Dersom du synes det er litt for lenge siden SILVERBULLIT eller, for den saks skyld, 120 DAYS slapp et album, skal du eie Book Of Norma!

SPOON follows up a good two years of critical accolades, sold out shows and stellar TV appearances supporting 2007's Ga Ga Ga Ga Ga with its seventh full length album, Transference.

Produced by the band, Transference is made up of 11 new gems that honor the SPOON tradition while pushing the envelope of the band's sound ever further. Before Destruction opens proceedings with a transfixing air of foreboding before Is Love Forever? and The Mystery Zone kick in with hooks that grip the listener's cortex with the tenacity of an aural tapeworm. Who Makes Your Money and Got Nuffin, will be familiar to SPOON fans as the title track of the EP released by the band earlier this year.

Since the band's 1994 inception in Austin TX, SPOON has amassed one of the most loyal and steadily growing followings in alternative rock, with classic albums like Telephono (1996), A Series of Sneaks (1998) Girls Can Tell (2001), Kill The Moonlight (2002) and Gimme Fiction (2005) each doubling their predecessors' sales. Transference stands to take SPOON to an entirely new level, as the previous Ga Ga Ga Ga Ga was the band's first US Top 10 album.

- Widely announced by worldwide influential music blogs such as Stereogum and Pitchfork.
- First single and video plugging for "Written In Reverse" commencing December 2009.
- Their previous effort Ga Ga Ga Ga Ga made it to Q and BBC Radio 6 Best of The Year lists.
- SPOON will be touring around album release and revisiting Europe later in the year.

GRAND ISLANDs tredje album Songs from Östra Knoll 1:22 er nå ferdig innspilt. Oppfølgeren til Spellemann-nominerte Boys & Brutes' ble unnfanget i de svenske skoger og har med gjestearterister fra både KAIZERS ORCHESTRA, SUPERFAMILY og SHINING.

I fullstendig isolasjon fra omverdenen, uten innlagt vann eller noen form for kommunikasjonsutstyr tilbrakte bandet flere uker i et gammelt herregårdshus i de svenske skogene. Fra et tyvetalls låter ble det spikket ned til ti. Låtene ble prøvespilt for de lokale beboerne på et lokalt vertshus en gang i uka i ulike versjoner, med og uten lokal blåserekke. Den jordnære tilværelsen har satt sitt preg på albumets melodiske og helhetlige uttrykk, samtidig som bandet har søkt å beholde energien, variasjonen og intensiteten som har blitt dets varemerke.

Selve innspillingen av albumet fant sted i Athletic Sound og Propeller Music Division med henholdsvis SVEN OLSEN og MIKE HARTUNG bak spakene. Sistnevnte har også mikset albumet. Gode venner og profilerte musikere som JANOVE OTTESEN (Kaizers Orchestra), STEVEN WILSON (Superfamily) og JØRGEN MUNKEBY (Shining) bidrar alle på Songs from Östra Knoll 1:22. Ottesen og Wilson har lagt vokal på en låt hver, mens Munkeby spiller både tverrfløyte og saxofon.

Første single ut er Angelila, som PT er B-listet på P3.

STUNNING HEAVY PROG MASTERPIECE FROM EMPEROR FRONTMAN IHSAHN

Recorded during the first half of 2009, After completes Ihsahn's planned trilogy of initial recordings. Ihsahn's first recording, The Adversary, found the musician composing and performing all instruments and immediately struck a chord with his hordes of fans worldwide. The album afforded Ihsahn the opportunity to embrace more expansive sonic textures previously untouched in Emperor. The album also saw a return of his various lyrical muses. "Icaros, Lucifer, Prometheus, Zarathustra are all persons of history who challenged commonly accepted, most often enforced "truths," despite civilization's persecution of them and their followers, he comments. Their stories are inspirational. AngL would follow in 2008. Metal Maniacs said, whereas The Adversary was a sonic coping mechanism - all aspects of the album were tightly controlled - AngL finds the visionary widening and deepening the canvas. Decibel Magazine called the album, "as compelling as Emperor's best; Ihsahn sounds as fresh as he did fifteen years ago, but with the hindsight of a grown man." AngL featured a musical collaboration with Opeth's Mikael Åkerfeldt for the song The Unhealer. After showcases the Norwegian icon with drummer Asgeir Mickelson (Spiral Architect), bassist Lars K. Norberg (Spiral Architect), & saxophonist Jørgen Munkeby (Shining). "This is my first album written with 8-string guitars as basis which has been both challenging and inspiring, he comments when discussing the creative process. I also decided early on that I wanted to mix this album with Jens Bogren (Opeth, Katatonia) and recorded the album with that in mind. Asgeir and Lars have again delivered superb performances. I've always wanted to implement the saxophone in my music; Jorgens contributions truly added a silver lining to the album." Again working at his own Symphonique Studio, with additional work at Toproom Studio (co-engineered by Borge Finstad), After was meticulously laid out over an eight month period. The intensity of the project has more than paid off with early listenings already proclaiming it to be the most poignant creations of his solo efforts.

A Chorus of Storytellers was recorded by Ryan Hadlock in the frosty month of February 2009 at Bear Creek Studio just outside of Seattle. It was mixed in the decidedly warmer month of June in Reykjavik, Iceland by Birgir Jon Birgisson. Those paying attention will notice that this is nearly the same way their last album Into the Blue Again was recorded. There is, however, one fundamental difference between this and every other album THE ALBUM LEAF has ever recorded. For the first time in five albums, The Album Leaf recorded as a whole band. In the past, almost every instrument was performed by principal songwriter and multi-instrumentalist JIMMY LAVALLE. This time the whole band was invited to participate and the result is their best record yet.

Mechanize features the highly reported reconciliation of vocalist Burton C. Bell with original guitarist Dino Cazares along with bassist Byron Stroud and journeyman drummer Gene Hoglan (Dethklok, Strapping Young Lad). The anticipated album also welcomes back keyboardist/producer Rhys Fulber (Front Line Assembly).

Mechanize is a full-fisted blast of passion and innovation that sounds like the missing link between's 1995's groundbreaking Demanufacture and 1998's more texturally nuanced Obsolete. Songs like "Industrial Discipline" and "Powershifter" are crushing and colossal, melding fast and precise rhythms with vocals that pinwheel from raw and scathing to hauntingly melodic while "Fear Campaign," which features harrowing spoken word passages, quickly segues into a showcase of punishing beats, rapidfire riffs and ghostly keyboards. For the first time in years, the band's industrial roots glimmer through its street-lethal metal, thanks in part to Fulber, who worked on Fear Factory's popular industrial remix albums Fear is the Mindkiller and Remanufacture.

Thee Silver Mt. Zion Memorial Orchestra (SMZ) returns with its sixth full-length recording and first since the band's line-up change of summer 2008.

Having shed three members and recruited one (drummer David Payant), the group officially dropped the "Tra-La-La Band" from its name and embarked on an extensive European tour in 2008. As Kollaps Tradixionales ably demonstrates, the band has lost none of its raw and frazzled anthemic power and continues to forge bold new ground in its search for a unique hybrid of punk, blues, psych, folk and modern orchestral idioms.

Anchored by the fried electric guitar and voice of band leader Efrim Menuck (Godspeed You! Black Emperor) SMZ continues to slide comfortably toards an expansive, loose and blues-inflected balladry.

Needless to say, the slow burn with SMZ, bears little reference to typical notions of musical seduction, relaxation, or hip-swinging satisfaction. What smoulders here is much more precarious and anxious, driven by some of this decade's more devastating lyrical conjurings – of the universal outsider and the thematics of 21st century western psychic oppression. As the lyrics to "There Is A Light" attest, these are no simple paeans to the human spirit, but songs of complex, desperate and thorny hope.

Constellation are pleased to announce the release of the limited edition CD. Packaged in 100% recycled card and comes complete with a stunning 16-page, fully bound art book, containing image collages by Efrim Menuck and film-maker, Jem Cohen. The screams for a reunion of the legendary SAVATAGE become less and less. One reason for this definitely is JON OLIVA'S PAIN, the new band of Jon "Mountain King" Oliva, the mastermind/singer/keyboard player behind Savatage. In fact JON OLIVA'S PAIN offers what Savatage did in their glorious days; it's all here: the master's unmistakable voice, the classic yet unique songwriting and even evolutions and some experiments here and there.

JON OLIVA'S PAIN is now back with their fourth studio album "Festival". A bombastic title for a bombastic record, indeed. Like the master announced it some time ago, "Festival" could be described as a mix of "Hall Of The Mountain King" (Savatage) and the second JON OLIVA'S PAIN album "Maniacal Renderings". Epic compositions culminate with rough, heavy rockers, all melt together by Jon's unique style of composing. After the more experimental last JOP album "Global Warning" from 2008, "Festival" is now more "basic" again. Less slow tracks, more metal. Expect Oliva's special humour shine through at any time, displaying his view of the world today in his very own sarcastic way – as it used to be. But again you also find his other side, the helplessly romantic and pure. The musical genius Jon Olivas was and has ever been the driving creative force behind Savatage. Now "Festival" marks the next step in the continuing legacy of the "Mountain King". It's once again a unique and unmatched piece of work by one of the scene's last originals.

ZEROMANCER
 THE DEATH OF ROMANCE
Trisol
TRI 385
4260063943850

Welcome to the modern sound of industrial! ZEROMANCER serves you new dark electronic rock in a delicious manner. "It is ZEROMANCER to the bone, our flesh and blood in one piece", says Kim Ljung. Who would have dared to hope that there would ever again be an album which unites melancholy sadness and rock sounds in such an absolutely perfect and catchy fashion?

Many years after the legendary album 'Razorblade Romance' from HIM, ZEROMANCER now put out an album which simply takes one's breath away. So full of beauty, so full of melancholy and yet so full of unbridled rock power. With their last album 'Sinners International', the lads from the north proved that they had once more recaptured the essence of their own debut. Radiant, vibrant and beguiling. Shimmering, fascinating and mysterious. Their fifth studio album "The Death of Romance" rises out of the darkness like the aurora borealis. Back to the beginning and yet at the same time forward-looking. Dark romantic ballads with stunning hooklines in the form of driving, modern industrial rock.

ZEROMANCER are a new and perfect unity of sex, emotion and energy. Rock music is finally once again that which it always should have been. Unaffected and impressive, for girls and boys. The one, with a tear in the eye, is full of yearning; the other goes crazy for the pounding drums and loud electric guitars. Never has one needed to be so little embarrassed about his/her feelings as with this powerful-romantic rock album. 'The Death of Romance' is a flawless construction of sweat-inducing industrial rock and a large dollop of emotion.

BURZUM
BELUS
Byelobog Productions
BYE 001CD
0803341321878

It's been 11 long years and now the world will finally see the return of Burzum. The highly anticipated new album is entitled Belus after the name of the ancient European solar deity of light and innocence. Belus is Burzums 8th studio album, and the sound and music of the new album can best be compared to the music of some of the old Burzum albums; in particular the ground breaking Hvis Lyset tar Oss and the atmospheric brilliances of Filosofem, only the ambient parts present on these albums has been almost completely left out on Belus. Belus is a hard hitting and melodic guitar driven album and will firmly keep Burzum at the helm of the metal / black metal scene and arguably his best album to date.

Burzum says of the new album and his style of music:

"My ambition with Belus is to create something I -- and hopefully others too -- can listen to for years and years to come without ever growing tired of it, and at the same time to share with my audience the experience of getting to know Belus, as he might have been perceived by the ancient Europeans. I am aware of the black metal association with the name Burzum, and I have no real and serious problem with that, but I personally see no reason to place Belus in any category. I think Belus musically transcends all existing categories, but if I have to choose one -- and for the sake of simplicity -- I will simply place it in the metal category".

THE BESNARD LAKES
THE BESNARD LAKES ARE ROARING INTO THE NIGHT
Jagjaguwar
JAG 126 / JAG 126LP

The Besnard Lakes, the Montreal collective fronted by husband-and-wife duo Olga Goreas and Jace Lasek, has returned, crafting a majestic, sprawling vision of guitar bombast and captivating pop experiments.

On March 9th of 2010 (March 8th in the UK), Jagjaguwar will release The Besnard Lakes Are the Roaring Night, a twisting chronicle of spies, double agents, novelists and aspiring rock gods turned violent. Loyalty, dishonor, love, and hatred are all seen through the eyes of two spies, communicating through short wave in code and fighting a war that may or may not be real. The Besnard Lakes Are the Roaring Night was recorded at Lasek's Breakglass Studios with a vintage 1968 Neve germanium mixing console used to record portions of Led Zeppelin's Physical Graffiti. The Besnard Lakes Are The Roaring Night is a dark bliss-out that folds the eerie guitar epics of the band's breakthrough, The Besnard Lakes Are the Dark Horse, into a wall of affected drones and atmospherics. The toughened immediacy and grit that gives the form a much-needed shove over the cliffs makes for a haunting, provocative swan dive into the crushing tide.
